

Want to be part of a bold, creative, and forward-thinking charity?
Become a Carr Gomm Trustee!

Carr Gomm is a leading Scottish social care and community development charity.

We provide support to over 4,500 people each week to enable them to live safe, full and purposeful lives. Our work is grounded in person-centred support and enabling people to live their best possible lives.

We are currently looking for energetic and passionate people to join our Board of Trustees (also known as Directors) and help us achieve our aims.

Trustees help steer Carr Gomm's strategy and ensure we stay true to our purpose. As a Trustee you will oversee our assets and reputation, and make sure decisions always put the people we support first. Trustees focus on the bigger picture-shaping direction, staying true to our mission and aims.

For more information visit: <https://reachvolunteering.org.uk/guide/become-trustee>

There are no specific qualifications or prior board experience needed – we value your skills and lived experiences more. We are looking for people who share our values of respect, interdependence, choice, control, openness & honesty and kindness & compassion. However, if you have professional experience in law, accountancy, marketing or IT this would be a great addition to the range of skills our board currently has.

We want to build a diverse board and actively encourage applications from people of all backgrounds – particularly those from Black, Asian, and minority ethnic communities.

There is a commitment required from you as our board meets at least 6 times a year (with the option of online attendance), but in return we provide induction, ongoing training and the opportunity to develop your skills and a chance to explore and diversify your area of interest.

We are committed to making our recruitment process as accessible and inclusive as possible. If you have any access needs or require information in a different format, we're happy to accommodate. Just let us know how we can support you to take part.

Interested? Then contact us at info@carrgomm.org to arrange an initial, informal chat.

Closing Date: Friday 13th June 2025

@CG_CarrGomm

www.carrgomm.org